

Snake Scoop News

Promise – interesting snake stories from across the globe, with a value-add that makes it worthwhile to read in addition to the clickbait headlines.

There is a lot of news in the world that involves snakes being found in crazy places, doing crazy things, biting people, killing people, surprising people, etc. Finally, after a couple of years of thinking about it, I've gone ahead and started a Snake News Site called "Snake Scoop News" at SnakeScoop.com.

This site has a main focus of sharing viral news stories that are already spreading across the globe, but with a twist. I add some value to each story by telling more about the snake, the people involved, the circumstances, the venom toxicity, where to find help in case someone is bitten by the snake involved, etc.

So, I'll be writing viral headlines like everyone else is about the stories, but my articles will be filled with more value than a simple share to followers.

If you're interested in this sort of thing, have a look and see if it's something you could read regularly or not. I'll be adding a couple of stories per day to the site, and will announce them at the FaceBook page and maybe do a weekly round-up through email too.
